SUBJECT: [REDACTED]

As of this date, May 16, 1983, I talked on the phone to [REDACTED] of the [REDACTED], about [REDACTED]. This conversation was generated because I had received a confidential record sheet which indicated that we should not register [REDACTED]. No substantiation was enclosed.

According to [REDACTED], [REDACTED] tried to register in Troop [REDACTED] as an Assistant Scoutmaster. His fee had been collected by the troop and [REDACTED] went on a camping trip with the troop. During the course of this event some sexual advances were made to several of the youth members.

Upon return from the camping trip, the committee met and decided that [REDACTED] should not be associated with them. Some parents were very upset and [REDACTED] had his money returned to him as well as the application. At the present time he is not involved in Scouting.

At a later date [REDACTED] associated himself with the Little League as a coach. During the course of this he apparently pulled down one boy's pants and now has a possible indictment facing him because of this incident.

We have no further information which will substantiate refusal of registration. [REDACTED] has promised to send information if an indictment should occur and any publicity appears in the newspapers.

I believe the information we have is strong enough to place [REDACTED] on probation, but probably not to refuse registration should it come from another council.
